RESTLESS

Grow the Cherokees Over the Unsettled Condition of Affairs.

Special to The Daily Leader.

Vinita, February 5.—The Cherokee people are growing restless over the seeming slowness of the Dawes commission in settling up their estate. Business conditions are at an alarming low ebb throughout the territory—especially throughout the Cherokee nation—rendered so by the uncertainty of land tenures, and many unsettled questions of rights among these Indians. Some few towns seem to be prospering, while the country as a whole is fast becoming a total wreck. Hard times and money scarce, no permanent improvements going on—all from the fact that one does not know where to place his or her improvement with a certainty of holding them when allotment comes.

This disastrous situation in Indian Territory, right here at home, should claim the earnest attention of congress, as the Indian governments now have no authority to act or relieve the distressing state of affairs. Some thing should be done before these people become beggars and paupers. As it is not a ton of coal or load of lumber can be sold from either the Cherokee or Creek nations. In fact no enterprise can be carried on in the way of trade or intercourse with the outside states or cities.

WAS NEVER DISCHARGED.

Flynn Introduces a Bill Discharging H. C. Barney From Veteran Service.

Congressman Flynn has introduced a bill in congress, which, if it passes, directs the war department to issue to H. C. Barney, of this city, a discharge from the veteran service of the war of the rebellion.

Mr. Barney enlisted in a company of Wisconsin volunteers in 1861. He with his company, was discharged from the volunteer service in 1863, and by a new order from the war department was allowed to return home and enlist as a veteran, getting $400 bounty for so doing. He served in the army of Potomac. At the battle of Gettysburg he was wounded and taken prisoner. He was kept a prisoner of war until the war was over. This accounts for his not being discharged, although he has endeavored to obtain the same. By being discharged from the veteran service it will give him record title to over $400 bounty that he failed to receive.

Mr. Barney is a member of the G. A. R. post of this city and is city water commissioner.

Of course there are specialties—good ones, too—embracing the latest in songs, dances and medleys.

The society theatrical event of the season will occur tonight, when "Darkest Russia" will be presented at the opera house. This is a standard attraction. ### A GOOD WOMAN, GONE.

Death and Funeral of Mrs. Carrie M. Perkins, Grand Secretary of Eastern Star.

The funeral of Mrs. Carrie M. Perkins, wife of B. F. Perkins, was held yesterday afternoon in the K. of P. hall. The occasion brought together a large crowd of sympathizing friends, who came to take the last look and to pay the last rite of respect to a truly good woman, whom they had known so long and who has been identified with Guthrie's progress in many ways. The funeral was conducted by the order of the Eastern Star, of which she was a member.

Her death was quite sudden. It occurred Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from heart failure at her home on north First street. She had been in delicate health for the past year. Being connected with the post office since Delegate Flynn was postmaster, she had been urged to seek out door recreation, with the hope that her health would be improved.

Her recent illness dates from the middle of December, when she was taken down and was confined to her bed up to the time of her death. Her condition indicated no serious features until a few minutes before noon Saturday, when she was taken with sinking spells, which soon after resulted in her death.

Mrs. Perkins was a charter member of Guthrie chapter No. 12 Order of the Eastern Star, and was elected grand matron for Oklahoma and the Indian Territory in 1893. She was grand secretary of the Eastern Star and was a faithful worker in the order. She was also a member of the Woodman Circle.

Mrs. Perkins was born October 14, 1856, at Plainfield, Illinois, and was the only living daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Biggs. Her parents moved to Mound Valley, Kansas, in 1870. She came to Kansas with her parents, and was the first teacher in the public schools at Parsons, Kansas. In 1876 she was united in marriage to Mr. B. F. Perkins, who survives her.

The parents of the deceased arrived last Saturday night and returned yesterday evening, taking with them the remains, which will be interred in the family lot of the village cemetery.
